

Educational Offerings

Agency Enforcement Actions and Attorney General Inquiries - as if Lawsuits Weren't Enough!

Wednesday, February 24, 2021 – 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET
One (1) RMAI Education Credit Toward Certification

Sponsored By

Join our panel discussion regarding regulatory enforcement trends of the State Attorneys General and the hot topics in enforcement today. The expert panelists will take a look at the past to better strategize for the future, discuss how to respond to a government inquiry, and review best practices that you can employ in your business.

Pricing:

Member: *Free

*One free registration per member company; additional registrations as member rate)

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Stefanie Jackman is the leader of Ballard Spahr's Debt Collection Team and partner located in Ballard's Atlanta office. Stefanie is nationally recognized for her expertise in collections compliance and litigation across all segments of the financial services industry, including traditional financial products, fintech and online lending, healthcare, and student lending. She regularly assists clients with issues and litigation arising under the FDCPA, FCRA, TCPA, EFTA, and state law analogues.

Jessica Lesser is a proven civil trial attorney with expertise in the regulatory framework of consumer finance, lending, and technology. A former managing attorney in the Consumer Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General of Texas, she has two decades of litigation and regulatory compliance experience and is board certified in consumer and commercial law. Her leadership roles in private practice, state government, and within corporations demonstrate her adaptability and ability to provide solutions in highly regulated environments. Her extensive litigation experience provides for efficient and responsive results that are customized to a client's needs.