

Amended DC Emergency Legislation

September 3, 2021 – 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

The District of Columbia's debt collection legislation becomes effective September 23 and imposes significant requirements for data and comments as well as restrictions on consumer contact. Although you may have attended our July 20 webinar, the legislation has undergone significant changes since it was introduced on July 12. This presentation will explore these changes including:

- Efforts of RMAI and other industry participants leading to the amendments
- Changes to data and document requirements
- Changes to conduct regulations (including call caps)
- Amendments to the penalty provisions

The panelists will discuss potential compliance strategies you can implement to address these changes.

Pricing:

Member: *Free

*One free registration per member company; additional registrations as member rate)

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Donald Maurice is a partner at national financial services law firm Maurice Wutscher LLP. For nearly 30 years, Don has counseled the financial services industry in defense and compliance matters. He has litigated in bench and jury trials in both individual and class actions, appearing before federal Circuit Courts of Appeals and as amicus counsel before the U.S. Supreme Court. Don serves on the governing Board of Regents of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers and on the Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law. He is outside counsel to RMAI and was the chair of the ABA's Debt Collection Practices and Bankruptcy Subcommittee, Business Law Section from 2014 to 2017.

Mark Naiman, President with Absolute Resolutions Corp. has been involved in the stratification of over 800 individual transactions, including the analysis behind the potential liquidation for over $20 Billion in purchased accounts. Mark is a frequent speaker on topics ranging from Data Security, Operational Best Practices, Historical Industry Analysis, Encryption Methodology, Risk Mitigation and Relationship Building. An RMAI Certified Receivables Compliance Professional, Mark was elected to the RMAI Board of Directors in 2014 and served two terms as President.

Franci Wayland is Senior Counsel, Government Affairs and Public Policy at PRA Group, Inc. She has over fifteen years of experience in the consumer financial services industry with a focus on government affairs, government relations, public policy, legal and regulatory compliance. She is responsible for the day-to-day management of the state government relations team at PRA. She works with senior leadership and internal business partners to develop the legislative policy agenda for the company and is responsible for the overall planning, organization and execution of PRA's government affairs strategies and activities at the state and local level.