

Current Trends in Bankruptcy Litigation

October 20, 2021– 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

As a result of the pandemic, 2020 and 2021 have been marked by significant changes in the debt collection and purchasing industry. In the midst of new regulatory expectations, new consumer protections, and new laws, what does this mean for consumer bankruptcy patterns? Is there a wave of bankruptcy filings coming? Will we see an increase in litigation pertaining to the filing of Proof of Claims? How does Regulation F impact this space? Who bears the risk – servicers or owners? Please join our panel to discuss these questions and more as explore the current trends of bankruptcy law and where that leaves the debt industry.

Pricing:

Member: Free

Non – Member: $94

Register

Course Presenters:

Alan Hochheiser, with Maurice Wutscher, is a leading practitioner in the areas of creditors' rights and bankruptcy law. He advises and represents businesses, regional and national banks, credit unions, equipment lessors and other lenders, as well as secured and unsecured creditors. Among his accomplishments, he has successfully resolved non-dischargeable claims based upon fraud conversion and breach of fiduciary issues and has successfully handled the assumption of leases in the bankruptcy of a major airline.

Bruce Jobe, Senior Vice President, Bankruptcy Operations and Strategic Analytics with Resurgent Capital Services, is responsible for the daily management and oversight of our Bankruptcy Servicing operations. Mr. Jobe joined us from Bank of America where he most recently served as Senior Vice President, Issues and Exam Management of Default Servicing. Prior to that, Bruce had various responsibilities with Bank of America in Collections and Treasury Servicing. Mr. Jobe also served as Vice President of Risk Management and other functions in credit policy, operations and audit/quality control for the US mortgage insurance businesses at Genworth and GE Capital.

Rui Pinto-Cardoso is co-founder and the CEO of Quantum3 Group, LLC("Q3G"). Q3G is a leading provider of Bankruptcy Portfolio Management solutions. Q3G's expertise and focus is exclusively within the bankruptcy recovery context.

Prior to launching Q3G in 2010 Mr. Pinto-Cardoso served as President and COO of B-Line, LLC for 8 years, and before that he was VP of Risk at First Union/Wells Fargo Bank. Mr. Pinto-Cardoso was also an Adjunct Professor for several years at the College of Business of Florida International University.