

CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER – TEMPORARY WAIVER OF IN-PERSON CREDITS

RMAI Certification Council:

As the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) for _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Certified Company”), I hereby request permission, per section 6.8 (D) of the Receivables Management Certification Program, to take up to 24 continuing education credits online for the Certified Receivables Compliance Professional (CRCP) designation.

I understand that this is a one-time waiver I am seeking and that in the future I must obtain a minimum of twelve continuing education credits through live in-person instruction for my biennial CRCP renewal.

The basis for this waiver:

- I was hired within the last six months as Certified Company’s CCO or “acting” CCO and have not had the opportunity to obtain live continuing education credits
- I have a temporary disability which prevents me from traveling to a location where live continuing education courses are being provided
- New RMAI program implementation deadlines – please describe:
