

Trending in 2022: Bankruptcy Litigation

August 30, 2022– 9:00am PT/12:00pm ET

One (1) RMAI Education Credit

Please join us for a bankruptcy webinar on current trends in bankruptcy litigation. Our panel, which will include a United States Bankruptcy Court Judge, a Chapter 13 Trustee and other members of the industry, will provide an update on the latest bankruptcy filing statistics and projections. The Panel will also discuss the status of proof of claim litigation and the request for attorney fees. The fallout from the Supreme Court's ruling in City of Chicago v. Fulton and the subsequent Circuit and Bankruptcy Court rulings which could affect the assets of the estate will be addressed. In addition, a discussion on how the remote hearing process help or hurt the recovery of assets and the administration in bankruptcy cases.

Pricing:

Member: Free

Non – Member: $94

Course Presenters:

Alan Hochheiser, with Maurice Wutscher, is a leading practitioner in the areas of creditors' rights and bankruptcy law. He advises and represents businesses, regional and national banks, credit unions, equipment lessors and other lenders, as well as secured and unsecured creditors. Among his accomplishments, he has successfully resolved non-dischargeable claims based upon fraud conversion and breach of fiduciary issues and has successfully handled the assumption of leases in the bankruptcy of a major airline.

Bruce Jobe, Senior Vice President, Bankruptcy Operations and Strategic Analytics with Resurgent Capital Services, is responsible for the daily management and oversight of our Bankruptcy Servicing operations. Mr. Jobe joined us from Bank of America where he most recently served as Senior Vice President, Issues and Exam Management of Default Servicing. Mr. Jobe also served as Vice President of Risk Management and other functions in credit policy, operations and audit/quality control for the US mortgage insurance businesses at Genworth and GE Capital.

Kathleen A. Leavitt is a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Trustee for the District of Nevada, Las Vegas, and was appointed to that position in 1981. She also served as a Chapter 7 Panel Trustee from 1981 to 1992 and has administered numerous State District Court receiverships and probate estates. She served on the Executive Board of Consumer Credit Counseling of Southern Nevada from 1995 - 2005. She is past president of the National Association of Chapter 13 Trustees (NACTT) and served as an officer for 5 years and as a member of the Advisory Board for 4 years.

Judge Elizabeth S. Stong is a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of New York, sitting in Brooklyn. She entered on duty on September 2, 2003. Previously, she was a litigation partner and associate at Willkie Farr & Gallagher, litigation associate at Cravath, Swaine & Moore, and law clerk to U.S. District Judge David Mazzone in the District of Massachusetts.